Venue

EG2019 will be at The Porto Antico Conference Center at Magazzini del Cotone, located on one of the ancient quays of the old port of Genova. A charming waterfront plaza, the work of famous Genovese architect Renzo Piano, offers tourists and Genovese alike a wealth of opportunities to experience cultural and recreational events and activities, enjoy splendid panoramic views of the city and its harbour, and visit some of Genova's best-known attractions.

Just behind the harbour Genova's historic centre - one of the largest in Europe - unwinds in an intricate maze of alleyways where smells, tastes, and cultures have combined throughout history. The grandest families of the aristocracy built their dwellings on the edge of the historic centre in the 16th and 17th centuries; these residential roads, the "Strade Nuove" (New Streets, comprising Via Garibaldi, Via Cairoli, and Via Balbi) were recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, together with the "Palazzi dei Rolli".

Genova is a sequence of precious treasures and peaceful corners a few minutes from the centre. On the hills behind Genova, the forts built between the 18th and 19th centuries formed one of the largest fortification systems in Europe, an now offer an amazing hiking opportunity. Suggestive fishing villages, beaches, promenades and terrace views overlooking the sea will make your stay in town a unique experience.
